

I woke up famous

I woke up famous today,
Drank coffee, but it tasted the same,
Same as yesterday
When I bought at the eatery
Oh, I'm on the road now,
But the car rides as usually,
So I can tell you the truth:
"There is nothing special in my destiny"

But I feel so inspired
I'm blessed to feel that inside riot.

I can't stop
It blows my mind
Music is breaking out from me
I hasten to share with you
Do you mind?
I can't stop
It blows my mind
Music is breaking out from me
Put on your headphones
And check it out.

Do you know what bothers me most?
Where are all those guys?
Who admired me?
Now they're even scared to talk with me.
Guess what? Now I'm a popular friend...
'Cause I'm shown on TV
But they don't know that I feel
Insincere words easily

But I feel so inspired
I'm blessed to feel that inside riot.

I can't stop
It blows my mind
Music is breaking out from me
I hasten to share with you
Do you mind?
I can't stop
It blows my mind
Music is breaking out from me
Put on your headphones
And check it out.

I woke up famous today,
Drank coffee, but it tasted the same,
Same as yesterday
